Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

FOR RELEASE: 30 March 1979

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WASHINGTON D C -- For the sixth year in succession Rep Kika de la Garza has been named a member of the Board of Visitors to the U S Coast Guard Academy.

Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee Chairman John Murphy notified de la Garza of his selection. Other members of the Board on that Committee are Congressmen Mario Biaggi and Gene Snyder.

The Board of Visitors is charged with the responsibility of making an annual visit to the Academy, located at New London, Conn., to inspect its facilities, curriculum, student body and faculty, and report its findings to Congress.

"I am looking forward to this inspection visit which is tentatively scheduled for 27 April", Rep de la Garza said. "The Coast Guard is of great significance to South Texas and I am happy to have a chance to come closer to its educational institution."
